

Human Writes

'Imagine' is a collection of poems and illustrations by prisoners on Death Row, compiled by Human Writes.

The book gives an insight into what it means to be on Death Row, showing some of the ways in which prisoners confront and adapt to their situations and highlighting the importance of friendship and memories.

The book is priced at £3.00 for members of Human Writes and £4.00 for non-members. An optional contribution for postage would be much appreciated.
